WE BUY BOOKS

In large lots and small. In most cases, by selling to us, you will achieve higher prices than you might at auction because neither a seller's nor a buyer's premium will be charged. To save transport costs and difficulties, please send us a list of the book(s) you wish to sell, giving the author and title, the publisher and date and place of publication, and the condition. We will examine the list at once and inform you of the book(s) in which we are interested. In the case of libraries or large lots which require a visit from our buyer, we would be grateful if in the first instance we could have a list of principal items.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Orders from this catalogue should be accompanied by a remittance if your name is not already on our books. The prices in this catalogue are nett and do not include cost of postage or insurance. Prices are in $AUD. All items are sold as complete and in good condition unless otherwise described. Any item found to be incomplete or defective when not so described may be returned.

Purchases may be made with Bankcard, Mastercard and Visa. When using this method please provide the following information: type of card being used, your name exactly as it appears on your card, card number and expiry date.

222 LESSON, (Rene Primevere). Voyage autour du Monde entrepris par ordre du Gouvernement sur la corvette La Coquille; 4vols. Bruxelles: N.-J. Gregor, V. Wouters et Cie, 1839. 8vo Orig. French quarter oasis with marbled boards and tipped corners. Spines uniformly gilt lettered. A particularly fine set of the Brussels edition, complete with 4 frontispieces (including one depicting the native inhabitants of Port Jackson), and a title-vignette to each volume. Ferguson 2788. NOTE: The "Coquille", under the command of Captain Duperrey, visited Sydney in 1824, remaining there from 17th January to 20th March. King Bungaree, a very quaint figure, who spoke a little English, waited upon the Frenchman, with his retainers. The aborigines are fully described, and the excursions and observations of the visitors recorded. The official history of the voyage was not published, and the only contributions to it are in these volumes and in the "Observations personnelles" of M. D'Urville, then an officer of the vessel. M. Lesson was naturalist of the "Coquille". Vocabularies of some of the places visited, including New South Wales and New Zealand, are given. $2,000
